

Metals Finishing Facility

Linn County, OR

Pillar Consulting Group was the Engineer-of-Record for a new metals finishing facility. Pillar was directly responsible for the building code analysis, building and site layout, structural engineering, civil engineering and related project management and coordination of this project. Extensive site improvements included wetlands mitigation, waterway impacts and new stormwater quality facilities.

Square Footage:
64,700 SF

Site Improvements Area:
6.64 acres

Project Construction Cost:
Confidential

Structural System:
Pre-engineered Metal Building

Project Team:
Selmet Owner
R. L. Reimers General Contractor

Pillar's Responsibilities:
Building Design
Fire and Life Safety Code Review
Civil Engineering
Structural Engineering

CIVIL | STRUCTURAL | FACILITIES | BIM

for more information contact Joe McCormick at 541-752-9202

www.pillar-inc.com